Simulare Speaking

This is a model test, the candidate will receive the pictures and the examiner will ask different questions.

Part I

The candidate enters the room.

Examiner: Hello. My name's Ms Johnson.

Candidate: Hello.

Examiner: What's your name?

Candidate: Fred.

Examiner: What's your surname?

Candidate: Anderson.

Examiner: How old are you, Fred?

Candidate: Nine.

Part I

Find the differences

Now, here are two pictures. My picture is nearly the same as yours, but some things are different.

For example, in my picture, there are two children: a boy and a girl, but in your picture, there is only one child: a boy. OK?

I'm going to say something about my picture. You tell me how your picture is different.

Examiner: In my picture, the guitar is yellow.

Candidate: In my picture it's red.

Examiner: In my picture, the sun is between the mountains.

Candidate: In my picture, it's on the right side.

Examiner: In my picture, there is an axe stuck in a tree stump.

Candidate: In my picture, there isn't any axe.

Examiner: In my picture, there's a hot-air balloon on the left.

Candidate: In my picture, the hot-air balloon is on the right.

Examiner: In my picture, there is a tree near the yellow tent.

Candidate: In my picture, there isn't any tree near the yellow tent.

Examiner: In my picture, there is a fox in front of the blue tent.

Candidate: In my picture, there is a rabbit.

Part II

Information Exchange

Examiner: Jonas and Nataly have both got new hobbies. I don't know anything about Fred's hobby, but you do. So I am going to ask you some questions.

Examiner: Now you don't know anything about Nataly's new hobby, so you ask me some questions.

- Candidate: What is Nataly's new hobby?

Examiner: Her new hobby is playing the guitar.

- Candidate: When does she do it?

Examiner: She does it on Sundays.

- Candidate: Where does she do it?

Examiner: In her living room.

- Candidate: What does she wear?

Examiner: She wears a red T-shirt and jeans.

- Candidate: Why does she like it?

Examiner: It's relaxing and therapeutic.

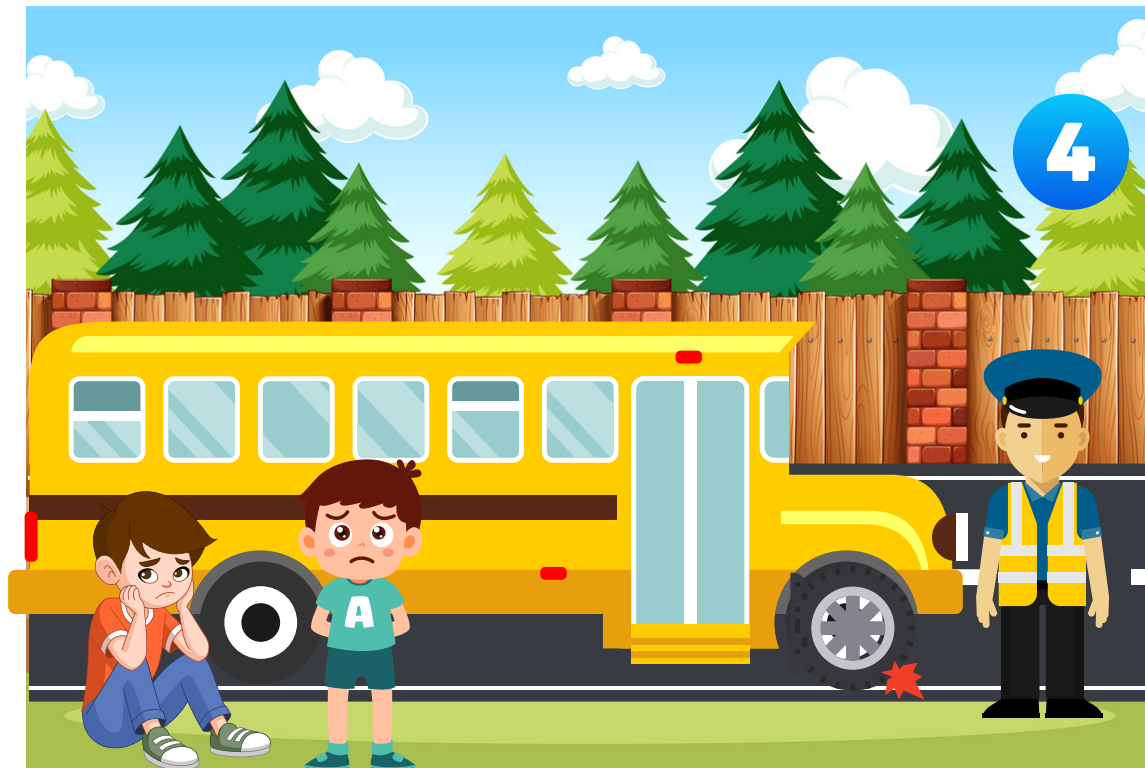

Part III – Picture Story

These pictures tell a story.

It's called 'The Bus Breakdown'. Just look at the pictures first.

Jane and her brother, Henry, are going to school. They are waiting for the bus. Henry's saying, 'The bus is not coming. What do we do?'
Now you tell the story.

The Bus Breakdown

The candidate can answer like this:

The bus doesn't show up so the children are walking to school.

When they arrived at school, they found out the bus had a flat tire and the other children were unable to reach school.

They were happy because their classes were cancelled, but the children on the bus were very sad.

After a few hours, the bus took the children home.

Part IV – Personal Questions

Examiner: Now let's talk about you.

- What's your hobby?

Candidate: Painting.

- Why do you like painting?

Candidate: It helps me to relax and also to express my emotions.

- What's your favourite sport?

Candidate: Football.

Part IV – Personal Questions

- Tell me about your house. Is it big or small?

Candidate: It's big.

- What colour is it?

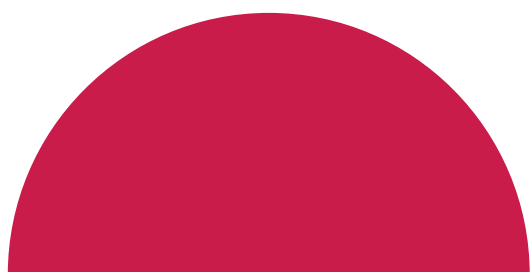

Candidate: It's white.

- What's it got in it?

Candidate: It's got three bedrooms, a bathroom, a kitchen and a living room.

Examiner: Okay, thank you. Goodbye, Fred.

Candidate: Goodbye!

Thank you for watching
